He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; Many will see and fear And will trust in the LORD. - Psalm 40:3

My mouth is filled with Your praise And with Your glory all day long. - Psalm 71:8

God gives His children a new song of praise. As we declare the works of the Lord, we bear witness of His glory. If our mouths are filled with God's praise, we become a well of living water. Praise can change our attitude and release us from oppressive thoughts. Praise opens our hearts to God's healing presence, both spiritual and physical.

I have been reading a book that I recommend called, "Prison to Praise" by Merlin Carothers. He also has another book called the "Power of Praise." On the ministry website it says, "Prison to Praise chronicles Merlin Carothers' spiritual journey from a hostile, bitter young soldier in World War II to accepting Christ and returning to the military as a chaplain." (foundationofpraise.org).

One native woman, at our Thursday night prayer meeting, gave a testimony of how she was prayed for concerning a problem in her left leg. She found that as she testified to others, and gave God thanks for what He had done, she continued to be healed more and more, until all the pain disappeared. That is the power of praise! This is something we can all do — give praise to the Lord even when we haven't received the total healing or deliverance in full.

August 24th, evangelist and author Debbie Kirk, spoke at FCM. I helped prepare breakfast for the group. Debbie and others did individual ministry for the women. There was also a time of worship and teaching.

Many different groups use the sanctuary at FCM, including Mountain Movers church. YWAM and FCM are both interdenominational ministries, and willing to work with any evangelical ministry that promotes the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Upcoming Events: Please be in prayer for the upcoming revival on September 18th, with Stephen Powell. This will be an Encounter Night. Pray for God's conviction to cause a true spirit of repentance to manifest among the people. Evangelist Uriah Kessay will be ministering September 27-29th and Alaska Arise will take place October 5-6th. We have many events to prepare for and we believe for a harvest. Continue to believe for new staff to be a part of YWAM Fairbanks and for local leaders to mature in the faith to lead the next generation. Pray for our country and this next election. Most of all, praise the Lord daily for His goodness in your life and give Christ all the glory!
